elder candidates

Our elders presented Dwight Newton and Josh Pinnick as elder apprentice candidates during our quarterly business meeting in January. After watching these men for several years, reflecting on their applications, and interviewing them, we believe God has gifted them to serve our congregation in this way. Following our recommendation, they introduced themselves and shared from the scriptures during a Sunday congregational worship gathering in early February. As we near our next business meeting and a request for the congregation to affirm them as elder apprentices, I want to make certain you have every opportunity to know them and learn why we believe God is raising them up to serve in this role.

Dwight Newton

Dwight was raised in Frankfort attending Crestwood Baptist Church as a young child and Memorial Baptist Church through his teenage and college years. He has college degrees in psychology and public administration and is currently the Vice President for Human Resources at Zoeller Company in Louisville. He and Michelle married in 1996 and have three sons: Cole (19), Clay (16), and Zeke (11). The Newtons came to Parkway in 2000 and we've celebrated baptism with each of their sons following their professions of faith. Dwight has served in a number of places over the years and currently serves as an adult Sunday Teacher, a deacon, and as a deacon representative on our Administrative Team.

Josh Pinnick

Josh grew up in south Louisville where he graduated from Valley High School and attended Kosmosdale Baptist Church. He met his wife, Amanda, at the University of Louisville while earning a degree in finance. A certified financial planner, Josh works in product and business development for Transamerica, a financial services company. He and Amanda have been married for more than 16 years and have 3 children: Elayna (12), Caleb (10), and Luke (5). They joined our Parkway family in 2012 and we have been blessed to celebrate baptism with Elayna and Caleb as an outward expression of God's work to save them. Josh teaches a young adult Sunday School class and has served in a variety of ministries over the years including: children's ministry, the singles ladies oil change, and international missions.

If you don't know one or both of these men well, please make an extra effort to look for them and introduce yourself. In addition, Josh will be leading our study on the spiritual disciplines on Wednesday, May 9 and Dwight the following week. Join us to sit under their teaching in the coming weeks as you continue praying for them and our congregation.

MISSIONS SPOTLIGHT: THE HART FAMILY

Here is an excerpt from and a blog post sent to us by Chris and Lori Hart. Chris and Lori Hart are missionaries from our church who have gone on to serve in various ways with Ethnos 360. Read below to get a glimpse into their hearts. To read the blog in its entirety, go to www.parkwaybaptist.com and click on Missions Spotlight under the Missions heading.

10 Years ago, the Lord nudged us out into the world of tribal missions. We were thrilled by the new adventures awaiting us, having no idea the challenges we would face. In retrospect, I'm so glad the Lord leads step by step instead of showing us His full plan. Had He told me of how He would lovingly and continually break us and humble us, I don't know if I would have said yes.

In Bogota, Colombia, we were on the fast track to being part of the E2 team. E2 helps new missionaries transition into life in Colombia. Chris took to the role naturally, while I struggled daily just to breathe. Transitioning into life in Colombia did not come easily for me. In fact, it didn't come at all.

10 years ago, our hearts were sold out to tribal missions, but in Colombia, my heart was broken and grieving. I grieved for my life in The States, for a "normal" childhood for our girls, for friends and family that I didn't know when I'd see again. I longed for something, anything to feel normal again. Daily routines had become very stressful to me. Getting out of bed had even become difficult. Chris loved the E2 ministry and worked hard to balance that with language study and taking care of me. Our girls struggled transitioning as well, but I was so low I couldn't see it.

Our God, so rich in mercy, allowed us to come home after a year, which was both terribly difficult and amazingly freeing. We didn't go to Colombia to come back in a year. We went there to make it our home and to help the Colombian church reach the unreached. I felt like a failure. On the other hand, we could see a future for our girls...and I could breathe again.

It is humbling to think that I write this from our comfortable kitchen table in Waukesha, Wisconsin when not much more than 2 years ago I was struggling to get myself out of bed in Bogota, Colombia. Daily we walk from our home on campus, up a few stairs into the main building of the Bible school where we serve among people who love Jesus. They aren't perfect, but neither are we.

EXPRESSIONS OF GRATITUDE

I would like to thank my Parkway family for all the cards and prayers during my mother's illness and her passing. Also, the wonderful bereavement dinner provided for my family after the funeral. You have all been a blessing to me during this difficult time. With deepest thanks, Glenda Phillips
